ABOUT US

Our journey began in Denver, Colorado in 1950 when Mike Leprino, Sr. started making mozzarella cheese for his family's corner grocery store. Today, Leprino Foods Company is a global dairy leader. In fact, we're the world's largest mozzarella cheese maker.

Despite our growth and success, we're still a family-owned company and remain committed to the same core values and entrepreneurial spirit that earned us our reputation as a dairy industry pioneer and trusted partner to top food brands worldwide.
